

The Sword in the Stone Assignment 1

In this section of the book, the Wart was on a quest without knowing it. What did he find? (the end of chapter 3 will help you find this answer)

What is King Pellinore looking for?

At the beginning of chapter 2, the Wart and Kay have an argument. What is their argument about? What does this tell us about the Wart?

Why does Kay say that the Wart is inferior (2 reasons)? (pages 14-15)

On page 15, what do they tell us about the Wart's personality?

In chapter 1, Sir Ector and Sir Grummore are trying to find a new tutor for the boys (Kay and Wart). How do they decide they are going to find one?

In the first 50 pages, you have been introduced to the following characters: Sir Ector, Sir Grummore, Kay, the Wart, Merlyn, Archimedes and King Pellinore. On a separate piece of paper, do one of the following:

- A. Write a 15 sentence paragraph describing one of the characters, why you like them or dislike them, and what are their personality traits.
- B. Or, describe and discuss as many of the characters above as you like, but you should have at least 15 sentences in total.

The Sword in the Stone Assignment 2

(up to page 99)

Do one of the following assignments.

- 1. Why does the dog-boy admire the Wart?
- 2. What lesson does Mr. M teach the Wart? (2-3 sentences)
- 3. Explain the whole adventure with Madame Mim. (8 sentences)

OR

- 1. Write a two page play based on the adventures with Madame Mim.

The Sword in the Stone Assignment 3

- A. Summarize the story of the jousting match between King Pellinore and Sir Grummore. Remember the various stages of the combat.
 - B. Summarize the story of the Wart's time with the birds of prey in the mews. Remember the lessons he learned and the ordeal they put him through.

The Sword in the Stone Assignment 4

1. On page 148, Kay and Wart get in a fight. What is this fight really about (read past page 148 to figure it out)?
 2. Please summarize, in about 15 sentences, Wart's and Kay's adventures with Robin and Marian.

The Sword in the Stone Assignment 6

1. Please write a summary (approximately 10 sentences) of Merlyn's and Wart's experiences with the Giant Galapas.
 2. Use any extra time to read ahead in the book . Your goal for next time is to finish the book.

The Sword in the Stone Assignment 7

1. Explain in 2-3 sentences why you think the Wart is crying at the end of the book.
1. Write a short play or Readers' Theatre (minimum 1 page, maximum
2. 2 pages) based on one of your favorite parts of the book. Then, get together with the other students reading this book and decide whose play you are going to perform for the class.

Things to think about:

- A. There won't be time to practice a lot or have costumes or props. You just do the best you can with what you have.
- B. You get a mark for the play you write as well as for the one you perform.
